Aaron M. Lavine | Partner

Aaron Lavine is a partner in the firm's personal injury and product liability practice group.

Aaron takes an intelligent, thoughtful, and client-centered approach to helping individuals and their families tenaciously fight for justice in personal injury and product liability cases, which has resulted in numerous seven-figure verdicts and settlements for clients across the country. Aaron has also represented clients in high-impact business litigation cases, including fraud, partnership dissolutions, municipal litigation, and various other business disputes.

Aaron was honored as a Super Lawyers Rising Star from 2016 through 2021. He is a member of Consumer Attorneys of California (CAOC), Consumer Attorneys of Los Angeles (CAALA), the American Association for Justice (AAJ), the Association of Business Trial Lawyers (ABTL), and the National Lawyers Guild (NLG). He also had the privilege of serving as a Fellow for the American Board of Trial Advocates.

Aaron was admitted to the California State Bar in 2008, after graduating from the University of California at Los Angeles School of Law. Aaron received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science with a minor in English from the University of California at Santa Barbara.
